Privacy Statement

The information provided on this form is necessary for administration and enforcement of the Domestic Animals Act 1994 and associated Moreland City Council Local Law. It will be used to update the public animals register as prescribed under Section 18 of the Act

Microchipping

Council must not register any NEW dog or cat that has not been implanted with a microchip. This includes previously registered dogs and cats that move into Moreland from another Council.

Documentation

The owner of the animal must produce proof of sterilisation, microchip implant, membership of approved association, obedience papers, service dog papers, breeding license, statutory declaration or tax return for proof of working dog status.

State Government Levy

A State Government Levy of $3.50 for each dog registration and a $2.00 for each cat registration is included in the fee and is primarily used to fund responsible pet ownership educational programs.

Pensioner Concession

If you currently hold a valid pensioner card you are entitled to a discount.

This does not apply to restricted, menacing and dangerous dogs. Card holders must present their card at any Moreland Citizens Service Centre for a discount.

NOTE: Health Card holders are not eligible.
